"Lo, Sis,

"I received a scribble from you today so decided I should answer right away. Yep -- could put it off a couple of weeks as usual but then you would bawl me out wouldn't you?

"I heard from Ralph today -- golly it was swell taken from the old kid. He's okay, too.

"Glad to hear that you and Bubba are scribbling to each other. Keep it up, okay? Hey, if you aren't too busy, will you shake a leg and get me some carload stationery? The paper PX has already sold out.

"Chin up chum -- everything will be fine always.

"Love, "
Gene
